

Pentacles of Magick: The Collection

THE FOUR OF PENTACLES

The Four of Pentacles represents the need for creating your own personal space and the desire for a healthy understanding of structure in a productive life.

The crux of the Four of Pentacles is boundaries. If the boundaries you set are undefined or weak, others are likely to take advantage of you and sap your energy. If the delineations are too strong, you will close out the world, and with that, any openness to the good things happening in your life.

Respecting limits

Animals have a keen understanding of boundaries, psychologically and physically, but humans find them more difficult to understand and struggle to maintain a healthy balance. Without constraint, you'll constantly infringe on others' personal space. If you shut yourself in and become isolated from others, you'll become miserly with your energy and resources and be plagued by a fear of not having enough. Structure in life is necessary, as long as it does not become too rigid. This card can indicate a need to pull back, without fully closing yourself off.

The symbolism of this card reminds you to create a world that is a welcoming place for others too.

THE FOUR OF PENTACLES SYMBOLISM IN YOUR DECK

1. FOUR PENTACLES
Four pentacles are placed in a solid square, indicating structure and stability.

2. THE SHIELD
The shield in the centre of this card denotes that you have the ability to protect yourself from harm through employing strong defences.

3. THE FOLIAGE
The foliage has a feather-like quality. It stems from the shield, revealing strength tempered with lightness.

REVERSED

Energy that was previously tightly reined in is now released. This can indicate freedom from previous restrictions and a dissolution of boundaries that have hemmed you in too tightly. Even this needs balance. If too many boundaries are dropped too swiftly, this can lead to insecurity through loss of structure.

ADDITIONAL SYMBOLS IN OTHER DECKS

4. MISER
Some versions of this card may depict a miserable-looking, yet well-dressed figure. He could be sitting rigidly and reserved, his posture seeming to hold back from the person in front of him. This posture may show that the figure's freedom has been curtailed by his own inflexibility. The four pentacles may be displayed in a rigid format or frame behind him, suggesting that the figure selfishly keeps resources to himself.

The miser's position in the card may show his own lack of adaptability.

5. GATE
Some cards use the four pentacles arranged in a fence, showing the need for boundaries. A figure walking past waves to people on the other side – a positive suggestion that she has set up necessary structure in her life, but is still able to welcome others in. This image suggests that the right balance has been struck between your social and private self.

Your MBS deck shows that you can be sociable and autonomous.
